Program Summary

United Way of East Central Iowa AmeriCorps members will provide academic support and increase engagement for low-income children and families through early literacy interventions, literacy and math tutoring, and enrichment programming in an effort to decrease the achievement gap and build engagement in eight selected schools and community sites throughout the city of Cedar Rapids. The AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 100 volunteers who will be engaged in enrichment and support programming for low-income youth birth through 8th grade. This program will focus on the CNCS focus area of Education.
